

ORTHOPEDIC RESIDENCY PROGRAM

WHY CHOOSE RESIDENCY?

- Highly recommended by APTA
- More marketable as a graduate of an accredited program
- Increased professional network and growth opportunities
- Higher scores on Specialist Certification Exams (i.e. OCS)
- Accelerate clinical reasoning through intentional and guided learning

WHO IS THIS PROGRAM FOR?

- New graduates
- Those looking to build clinical skills for increased growth opportunities

Our Thoracic Spine & Ribs weekend course

KEY PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- 12-15 month duration – Full Time
- One-on-one mentoring: 3 hours/week to advance clinical reasoning & treatment skills
- Didactic Curriculum: ~300 hours/year
- In-Service / Project
- Comprehensive curriculum taught by CBPT faculty through 11 small group weekend courses covering each region of the body
- Orthopedic Certified Specialist Prep Course
- ABPTRFE Accredited
- No Residency Fees

Why choose Coury & Buehler Physical Therapy?

TREATMENT APPROACH

- Our main areas of specialization are spine, orthopedics, and sports medicine.
- We offer a systematic approach to patient care integrating several well-respected and proven methodologies:
 - Osteopathic
 - Pain Science
 - Functional Manual Therapy
 - Developmental Kinesiology
 - Movement Science
 - Sports Medicine

OUR FACULTY

Majority are Board Certified Orthopedic Specialists (OCS) with 10+ years of clinical experience. Members of our team have also obtained several advanced certifications such as:

- Board Certified Sports Specialist (SCS)
- Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialists® (CSCS)
- Certified Athletic Trainer (ATC)
- Certified Functional Manual Therapist® (CFMT)
- Movement Links Certified® (MLC)
- Certified in Spinal Manipulative Therapy™ (Cert. SMT)
- Certified in Applied Functional Science® (CAFS)
- Myofascial Decompression Certified (MFDc)
- Blood Flow Restriction Certified (BFRC)
- Functional Range Conditioning Mobility Specialist (FRCms)

One of our graduates, Jeff, with the Irvine-Sand Canyon team

ABOUT CBPT

Coury & Buehler Physical Therapy is an award-winning, thriving private practice with multiple locations throughout Orange County, CA. We are a team of caring individuals who are passionate about patient care and learning!

OUR PURPOSE

The purpose of CBPT is to enhance the lives of our patients, team members, and everyone in our community!

OUR MISSION

Relieve pain, retrain movement, and restore function for each and every patient.

QUESTIONS?

Email our Program Director, Libbie Chen:
Lchen@cbphysicaltherapy.com

